

I had assigned myself in Epic to this patient in anticipation of seeing this patient, however, the patient left prior to being seen by myself. It is not uncommon for labs and radiology to be ordered under my name to expedite the patient's emergency department stay. Such orders are not an indication of Face-to-face evaluation by myself.